

The third Japan-Africa Business Forum DAY 6

Opening Remarks

8th July 2021

Hidetaka Nishimura

Deputy Director General, Cabinet Secretariat
Government of Japan

- The aim is to promote self-sustaining industries in the three fields:
 - * Medicine and Elderly care / * Healthcare services / * Services supporting a healthy life
- AfHWIN expects a synergy effect between public assistance and private sector activities.
- Enhancing partnerships among public- and private-sector (incl. NGOs and enterprises) is important.

To create the Mt. Fuji-Shaped Healthcare system in Africa

A. Human resources

Medical staff

Dietician, etc.

Experts on safety, environment and hygiene, etc.

B. Products/Services

Medical / Elderly care

Domestic advances medical services

Efficient medical services

Healthcare services

(Prevention, health promotion, etc.)

Medical checkup and prevention/health services

Healthy diet, nutrition, etc.

Services supporting healthy life

Clean water service/ toilets

C. Infrastructure

Healthcare industry infrastructure

Development, manufacturing and operation of medical equipment, systems

Development, manufacturing, safety regulations and logistics of pharmaceutical products

Measures against infectious diseases

Agriculture, food processing and logistics infrastructure to support health

Social infrastructure

Health insurance schemes

Safety standards (environment, labor, construction, etc.)

Education on healthy diet and nutrition, etc.

The Government of Japan has signed Memorandums of Cooperation(MOC) and taken cooperative actions with African countries to create the Mt. Fuji Shaped Healthcare system in Africa.

MOCs between Japan and African countries

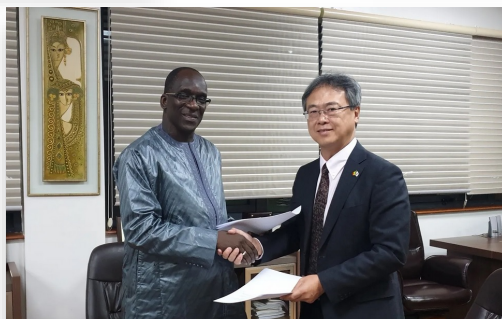

Ghana(Aug. 2019)

Tanzania(Aug. 2019)

Zambia(Aug. 2019)

Senegal(Aug. 2019)

Uganda(Aug. 2019)