

COLOR, POWER.

RICCI EVERYDAY

This bag gives a hope, motivation, and dignity to the people who make it.

There is no place where the socially marginalized people from the community can work comfortable with pride

1

To produce and sell bags and small accessories using colorful and playful African prints and sustainable material

2

To support our staff for decent lives through work at our company

Another team member is ... my mom!!

Realizing the world where everyone lives with pride appreciating and growing their own talents
